Supporting the Metrology Community

National Association for Proficiency Testing is a proud supporter and sponsor of the Measurement Science Conference. This year's training symposium is one you don't want to miss. The theme this year is Innovation Powering Measurement. Beginning Tuesday, March 20 – Friday, March 23, 2018, you will hear keynote speakers, attend multiple MSC Tutorials and walk the exhibit hall.

NAPT's booth will be at 501, right of the entrance. Swing by and say hello, ask what is new, ask about how you can become a member or a sponsor at NAPT. Have questions about the QMS Navigator and what it can do for your organization, NAPT staff will be available to answer your questions.

For more information about how to register for MSC, follow this link <http://www.msc-conf.com/>

KIDS Corner

It is important to get our children involved in metrology early. They can learn about measurement when helping in the kitchen to building things in the backyard. Kids can learn where to stand on the court every time to make their perfect shot in basketball.

I have turned to Google / YouTube.com for some fun kid friendly videos on Measurement Science.
